

The Eagle Eye

Week 6 July 24 - July 28

Our Wonderful Week

Dear Parents,

This week was Carnival Week!

We started our week off by getting the campers excited about wearing their tie-dye shirts Wednesday and helping run a booth for Carnival day this Friday.

The Eagles have been using a lot of problem solving this week. During drama, the Eagles had to hold hands with one another in a big blob and then try to untangle themselves. It was fun to watch the girls talk out a plan with one another and achieve their goal in the end.

All of the girls have been working so hard in the pool. The skills that they are learning take time and every day they are progressing. I am amazed at the growth they all have shown in these past few weeks.

I can't wait to see what Week 7 holds! The girls have all been looking out for each other and really helping out their counselors without being asked. It's amazing to see the Eagles take on more and more responsibility as the summer progresses.

HIGHLIGHTS OF OUR WEEK

- Tie-Dye t-shirts
- Carnival Day! EG1 & EG2 ran a lollipop tree game and EG3 & EG4 ran a soda can knock down game.
- We really enjoyed seeing all of the Eagles' costumes at camp on Friday!

REMINDERS
