

The Daily Dodger

Week 4 July 10 - July 14

Our Wonderful Week

It's hard to believe that we have closed out our fourth week at Tamarak. For some of our Dodgers, this is their last day with us. We have truly enjoyed getting to know all of them.

What a week we have had here at camp! The weather has been playing games and the Dodgers have been super flexible going with the flow.

In Science, the campers learned about sound. They used tuning forks and different noise makers to learn characteristics of sound and were able to their own straw pan flutes. In art, the Dodgers are working on making ceramic snakes.

Because of Mother Nature on Wednesday, the schedule changed and we had a jam packed day. Campers were able to get energy out with a dance party with DJ MARZ. Campers were also treated to a magic show and a Fun Wizz performance. The Dodgers also had an extra nature visit with Ralph and learned about different rocks and minerals found in Illinois.

All week the campers have been working on their songs and cheers for Swim-o-Rama which ended today. The entire camp was divided into four teams earlier in the week. In addition to swimming events, campers did an amazing job showing their Tamarak spirit with their cheers and group songs.
