

The Munchkin 4 Message

Week 6 July 23 - July 27

Our Wonderful Week

Grab your popcorn, candy or any other carnival foods and lets head to the Tamarak Carnival!! This week has been so fun. We made pretend Cotton Candy in arts & crafts with colored shaving cream and sang lots of songs with Marci and Andy. In yoga we did different yoga poses that go along with transportation. All of our Munchkin friends are working so hard in the pool. In Nature we learned about Turtle and Tortoise shells and then we got to make our own! We played drip, drip, drop with our M2 friends! On Friday we got to go around with our A girls to all the carnival games and win prizes! On sport court we played jumbo jenga and got to go bowl with all our friends. Can't believe week 6 is over and we can't wait for an awesome week 7!

Week 7 will be Olympics here at Tamarak. Munchkins will be involved in song and cheer, Olympic games, opening ceremonies and much more. On next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday please dress your child in their country colors if possible! Our group, M4, will be Spain and our color is YELLOW!
